

Dear Parents and Friends of EDS,

Last year we began what we hope will be a long-standing tradition here at EDS: Homecoming! This evening event features great football games on the big screen, fabulous food, live and silent auctions, food and drink, and friendly competitions, including the race for homecoming king and queen and best team decorations. If you missed Homecoming or are new to us this year, here's a quick recap:

*Florida fan Gay Dawson was the queen, raising the most money to reign supreme!
King Dr. Brent Videau was a geaux, promoting LSU, and bringing in the dough!
Football games played on the big screen, and the competition for the best college tent was mean.
Throughout the week, students chipped in their pennies to vote for their favorite team.
Alabama won the contest; Mrs. Stafford thought she was in a bad dream (sorry Gators).
But, the biggest winner of all was EDS with new funds to make our school the best!*

We hope you'll join us for Homecoming 2010 which takes place on Saturday, October 23, in the Currin Center. The event is open to adults 21 and over, our alumni, parents, and friends. Tickets to Homecoming are only $25 per person, and we will be sending out ticket reservation forms on September 7!

In order to make our event a success, we are currently seeking:

- Event sponsors
- Live and silent auction donations (SkyMiles anyone?)
- Volunteers to help the night of the event
- Tent chairs for Auburn, FSU, and team EDS!

If you'd like to help with any of the above, you will find information you can fill out in this packet and return to your child's teacher. We also create special Homecoming t-shirts that recognize our wonderful sponsors who make the event possible. Students are allowed to wear these t-shirts on special spirit days, so order yours now!

Please contact Director of Development, Sara Daniel, at 434-6474 or sdaniel@edsc.org for additional information.

Homecoming is a great way to meet parents, get involved, support the school, and most of all have fun! So, please plan to join us on October 23!
